

Low Voltage Systems Service Technician

Qualifications:

- Technical Certifications in low voltage cabling and infrastructure systems are a plus
- Experience in access control systems, IP camera systems, structured cabling, nurse call systems are required
- Experience in security alarm systems a plus
- Understanding of BICSI/TIA/ANSI cabling standards and codes
- Minimum of 3 years' experience in Low Voltage Systems, Telecommunications cabling and Access Control Systems
- Technical Diploma/Degree in Telecommunications or associated field or equal experience
- Understanding of copper and fiber cabling techniques and standards

Job Duties: Responsible for but not limited to the following:

- Installs voice, data, and other low voltage wiring and test accordingly
- Performs preventive maintenance on, Security, Alarm, Access Control, IPCCTV, Telecommunications, and other equipment
- Understanding of cable management (codes, above ceiling, etc.)
- Installs cable hardware infrastructures (voice connectors, data patch panels, etc.)
- Responsible for cleaning voice/data closets and keeping cable infrastructures neat and orderly
- Maintains voice/data cable records and associated documentation
- Responsible for on call duties
- Responsible for installation, repair and maintenance of Access Control and Security Alarm Systems
- Works on Nurse Call wiring and repair issues
- Installation of paging systems
- Responsible for Television cable installation and testing
- Assists with data network switching and voice network switching installations
- Attends basic training on cable certification, access control, IPCCTV, and voice products
- Maintains a working relationship with all staff with open communication
- Responsible for work order/trouble ticket management and follow up
- Responsible for keeping inventory of network/telecom and wiring equipment and material
- Responsible for vendor returns (bad equipment, etc.)
- Responsible for keeping up with tools and equipment
- Assists with basic Project Management
- Responsible for other duties as necessary